

A portrait of a man with a beard and mustache, wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a bow tie. The portrait is framed by a dark border.

HEBER, Jan. 10.—(Special)—Funeral services were held in Wasatch stake tabernacle, Friday for Mrs. Mary C. Davis, 90, a pioneer of this valley who died of old age Wednesday at her home at the Davis Ranch, north of Heber. The services were under the direction of Bishop H. Clay Cummings, and of Heber Second ward. Prayers were by Patriarch John A. Fortie and by Pres. C. Frank Ryan. Music was by a mixed quartet, Maybell Moulton, Donna Montgomery, Earl Smith, and Frank Hardy; vocal duets, Maybell Moulton and Donna Montgomery. The speakers were William Lindsay, Patriarch William Daybell of Salt Lake, V. L. Halliday of Salt Lake, President Joseph R. Murdock and Bishop Cummings. There was a large attendance and an abundance of flowers. Moroni Moulton, a grandson of the deceased, dedicated the grave in Heber City cemetery. Mrs. Mary C. Davis was born at Willsbire, England, Aug. 9, 1837 and came to Utah in 1864, residing at her ranch in North Heber practically ever since. Her first husband, John Collins, died and was buried at sea. She married William Davis shortly after arriving in Utah. Surviving children are William, George, Thomas and Robert. Mrs. Mary Ann Smith, Mrs. George B. Jordan and Mrs. John Jones, all of Heber; 33 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren. She was an active member of the church and was always ready to help in times of sickness, trouble and sorrow in her community.

Wasatch Nonogenarian Utah Pioneer of 1864, Is Buried at Heber

MRS. MARY C. DAVIS.

HEBER, Jan. 10.—(Special)—Funeral services were held in Wasatch stake tabernacle, Friday for Mrs. Mary C. Davis, 90, a pioneer of this valley who died of old age Wednesday at her home at the Davis Ranch, north of Heber.

Services were under the direction of Bishop H. Clay Cummings of the Heber Second ward. Prayers were by Patriarch John A. Fortie and Prest. G. Frank Ryan. Music was by a mixed quartet, Maybell Moulton, Dona Montgomery, Earl Smith and Frank Hardy; vocal duets, Maybell Moulton and Dona Montgomery. The speakers were William Lindsay, Patriarch William Daybell of Charleston, V. L. Halliday of Salt Lake, President Joseph R. Murdock and Bishop Cummings. There was a large attendance and an abundance of flowers. Moroni Moulton, a grandson of the deceased, dedicated the grave in Heber City cemetery.

Mrs. Mary C. Davis was born at Wiltshire, England, Aug. 9, 1827 and came to Utah in 1864, residing at their ranch in North Heber practically ever since. Her first husband, John Collins, died and was buried at sea. She married William Davis shortly after arriving in Utah.

Surviving children are William, George, Thomas and Robert Davis, Mrs. Mary Ann Smith, Mrs. George B. Jordan and Mrs. John Jones, all of Heber, 30 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

She was an active member of the church and was always ready to help in times of sickness, trouble and sorrow, in her community.